COMMENTS ON EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT AND ON REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Dear Sir:

With the Notice of Allowance mailed March 19, 2004, the Examiner entered an Examiner's Amendment and set forth Reasons for Allowance. Applicant submits these comments regarding those two items.

By the Examiner's Amendment, as authorized by the undersigned, the Examiner changed two instances of the term "predefined" to read "predetermined" instead. The reason for this change was strictly for consistency of terminology. The Examiner and the undersigned agreed that the terms mean the same thing. As such, the amendment did not narrow or change the scope of the claims.

In the Reasons for Allowance, the Examiner seems to have paraphrased some of Applicant's claims. Applicant understands, however, that the Examiner has found the invention as claimed in claims 1-58 to patentably distinguish over the art of record. Therefore, to the extent any paraphrasing of the claims diverges from the literal or equivalent meaning of the claims as allowed, Applicant does not acquiesce in the paraphrasing of the claims.

Respectfully submitted,

MCDONNELL BOEHNEN HULBERT & BERGHOFF
